Thomas, Mayer & Associés, advises Aviagen Turkeys Limited on the acquisition of the company SA Le Sayec – Couvoir du Mont du Salut in France

THOMAS, MAYER
& ASSOCIÉS

The law firm Thomas, Mayer & Associés advised the British company Aviagen Turkeys Limited which is part of the international group Aviagen, owner of strains of poultry and supplier of breeding turkeys and chickens genetically selected from them.

Company Le Sayec - Couvoir du Mont du Salut is a family owned business existing for fifty-eight years, with a turn-over of €25 million euros and more than sixty employees. It specializes in the farming of poults and in the hatching and supply of turkey eggs, for end-users located both in France and abroad.

Company Le Sayec - Couvoir du Mont du Salut has been maintaining close and lasting relationships with many quality breeders and producers.

The acquisition of Le Sayec – Couvoir du Mont du Salut will allow Aviagen Turkeys Limited to reinforce its position in Europe, particularly in France, to ensure better control of the supply chain in the turkey industry and to encourage proximity to their end-users in Europe.

Aviagen Turkeys Limited was advised in France by Thomas, Mayer & Associés (Emma Bensoussan-Crémieux, Managing partner).

Company Le Sayec - Couvoir du Mont du Salut was advised by Helouet, Salvignol & Associés (Gwenaël Thomas, Partner).
